SEND Summit: Key themes from the listening events and link to livestream

Thank you to all those who have shared their views and experience as part of the listening activities and events for the SEND summit. The findings from the listening activities reinforce our understanding of the challenges in the system. We have used your feedback to inform the key themes which will be discussed at the SEND Summit. These key themes can be grouped into 6 main areas:

1. Accessing the right learning environment
2. Ensuring timely and effective EHCP delivery
3. Enhancing communication and collaboration
4. Building workforce capacity in education, health and care services
5. Improving equitable access to health services across the county
6. Strengthening transitions and post-16 support

The SEND Summit taking place on Monday 15 September will be live streamed with a BSL interpreter to make the event available to as many people as possible.

You will be able to join the livestream through MS Teams. This will allow you to hear the key speakers, watch a Q and A with leadership from the council, health and education, and submit your questions.

The livestream will take place from 10am - 12.15pm and you can join at any time.

How to make a referral to new Herts counselling and creative therapies services

New countywide services for Hertfordshire children & young people ages 5-19th birthday begin 1 April 2025

Hertfordshire's new county-wide counselling (previously known as community counselling) and creative therapies services open for referrals on 1 April 2025 for children and young people from the age of five, up to their 19th birthdays who are registered with a Hertfordshire GP.

Both services accept self-referrals, as well as referrals via professionals. They will both be offering groups, one-to-one, online and in person options, at various locations throughout the county, based on the specific needs of each child/young person.

How do I know whether counselling or creative therapies would be more suitable for a child or young person?

Different therapies work for different people at different times. Counselling can work well for children and young people who feel able to open-up to a registered counsellor about things that may be quite personal or difficult for them to talk about, including their feelings and behaviour. Creative therapies may be more suitable for those who find it easier to understand and express themselves through creative art forms, such as play or drama with a registered creative therapist. If you're still unsure, please don't worry! As part of their assessment process, Hertfordshire Mind Network (counselling provider) and Signpost (creative therapies provider) will consider which type of therapy may be most suitable for a child or young person's needs.

Find out more and make a referral for:

- Counselling from Hertfordshire Mind Network (link/information coming soon)
- Creative therapies from Signpost) (link/information coming soon)*

Creative therapies is a newly funded service in Hertfordshire from 1 April 2025, with a limited number of funded spaces available for children and young people who might benefit from it.*

Hertfordshire's CYPMHS system will be closely monitoring demand for creative therapies against Signpost's capacity, as well as the outcomes for the children and young people who use this new service.

Please bear with us during this information-gathering period and please also ensure that children, young people and families are aware of and using the wide range of other Herts CYPMHS whilst they are waiting: www.hertfordshire.gov.uk/youthmentalhealth
